

Beginning with the classical Polya urn, we'll discuss what is known about some weird and wonderful reinforcement processes. In particular we'll discuss some recent joint results with Hirsch and Kleptsyn about some reinforcement processes on graphs.